ABOUT US

The Sisters of St. Paul's Monastery are a Community who live Gospel values as expressed in the Rule of St. Benedict. Through our monastic life and wise stewardship, we nurture contemplative presence in service of Church and society.

As St. Benedict urges in Chapter 53 of his Holy Rule, we welcome all as Christ. The Sisters and those in close relationship with us—Benedictine Associates, Oblates, and friends—unite in prayer and service of God.

Sisters' ministries include community prayer; Benedictine Center programs, retreats and spiritual renewal and direction; Maple Tree Monastery Childcare Center; outreach to the Monastery neighborhood and the larger community; and in the many ways the Sisters honor all as Christ.

Members of the Community serve in parishes; healthcare; various educational capacities at Maple Tree Monastery Childcare Center, Hill-Murray School, and St. Paul Public Schools; pastoral care at St. Therese Senior Communities; and social justice initiatives.

St. Benedict and St. Scholastica are our models of a dedicated way to live the Gospel and we welcome others to support us in our mission.
